

Interesting facts and figures: 28 June 2012

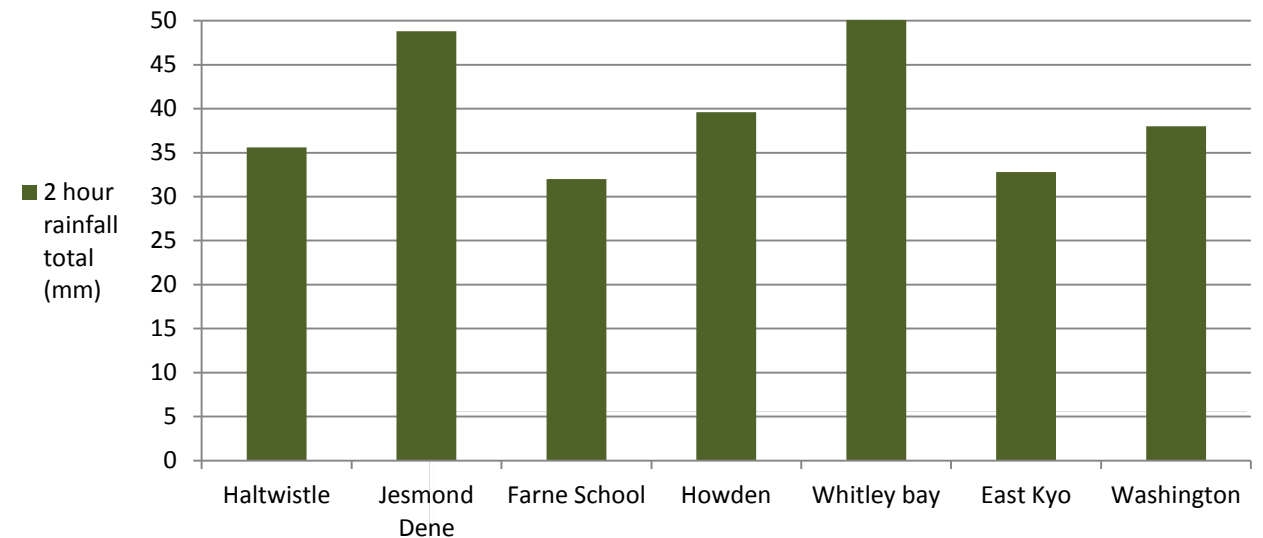

50.4 mm (1.98 inches) of rain fell in two hours over Whitley Bay.

101% of the average rainfall for the whole of June fell in those two hours.

Sky News: Whitley Bay

28 June 2012: Two hour rainfall totals

There are two rain gauges near Blyth, located 3 km apart.

On 28 June, one gauge recorded 48.2 mm (1.9 inches) of rain, the other recorded 25.4 mm (1 inch), showing how localised the rainfall was.